

Arresting a Vessel in Singapore: Disclosure to the Court

Wednesday, 16 July 2014, 3pm

JTJB Office

ABOUT THIS SEMINAR

A claimant may seek to arrest a vessel as security for the payment of sums owed to him, which may subsequently be used to satisfy a Court judgment in his favour. This seminar explores the requirements to be fulfilled in order for such a claimant to obtain a Warrant of Arrest from the High Court of Singapore.

With more than 30 years of Shipping & Admiralty litigation experience, Mr. Danny Chua, a Senior Partner at our firm, will share on the requirement of full and frank disclosure to the Court, which is a unique consideration in obtaining a Warrant of Arrest in Singapore. This discussion will equip potential claimants with an understanding of the issues they need to look out for when making the necessary preparations to arrest a vessel.
